

OPEN DAY GUIDE

Saturday 9 November 2024

LEEDS
CONSERVATOIRE

SATURDAY 9 NOVEMBER 2024

Welcome to Leeds Conservatoire's Performing Arts Open Day for our Undergraduate and Postgraduate programmes!

This Open Day guide will provide you with everything you need to know about today's Open Day events. There are a range of activities taking place including welcome talks, practical workshops and campus tours including the chance to have drop-in sessions with our Student Services and admissions teams. There are also opportunities to watch our talented BA Acting and BA Actor Musician students perform in a live production on the day. Student ambassadors (in blue t-shirts) are on hand throughout the day to answer any questions you may have about student life and studying at Leeds Conservatoire.

If you have any questions, our friendly team at the St Peter's Square main reception desk will be able to help you, or if you think of something once you've left us it's not too late!

For any further enquiries please contact www.leedsconservatoire.ac.uk/contact or have 1-1 chats with our current students online via our website: www.leedsconservatoire.ac.uk/ambassadors

Enjoy your day!

TIMETABLE

MORNING EVENT

WELCOME TALK (9.30AM) (THE VENUE)

Head of the School of Drama Erin Carter will welcome you to Leeds Conservatoire before speaking to you about our exciting Performing Arts programmes. Afterwards you will be guided to a practical workshop delivered by one of our expert tutors.

Anyone accompanying a student will be invited for a Q&A session on key admissions and auditions guidance, as well as a drop-in with our Student Services and Admissions teams whilst practical workshops take place.

AFTERNOON EVENT

WELCOME TALK (2PM) (THE VENUE)

Head of the School of Drama Erin Carter will welcome you to Leeds Conservatoire before speaking to you about our exciting Performing Arts programmes. Afterwards you will be guided to a practical workshop delivered by one of our expert tutors.

Anyone accompanying a student will be invited for a Q&A session on key admissions and auditions guidance, as well as a drop-in with our Student Services and Admissions teams whilst practical workshops take place.

TICKETS PLEASE!

There are opportunities today to watch our talented BA Acting and BA Actor Musician students perform in a live production:

- John Proctor is the Villain: 5PM, The Venue (Leeds Conservatoire)
- That Bloody Woman, 2PM or 7PM, The Chroma-Q Theatre, Quarry Hill Campus, Playhouse Square

Tickets are FREE for open day attendees! If you haven't yet got your ticket, please visit our box office outside the relevant venue before your chosen performance. Mention that you are a Leeds Conservatoire open day attendee and they will waive the fee for you.

TOURS AND FURTHER INFORMATION

Campus tours of two of our School of Drama sites and library will be available as part of this event. These will be structured campus tours in small groups, rather than visitors exploring independently. Tours will be led by our wonderful team of student ambassadors.

Members of our Student Services and Admissions teams will be available from 10.15AM – 4.30PM in the Rooftop bar to answer any questions on areas including disability support, health and wellbeing, student funding, accommodation and admissions.

CHANCE TO VIEW JOSEPH STONES HOUSE FLAT

We are delighted to offer open day attendees the opportunity to view an empty flat in Joseph Stones House as part of this open day, one of the Halls of Residence options available to Leeds Conservatoire students. This will be a self-guided visit, and you can choose a time that suits you and your open day schedule.

CHAT TO OUR STUDENTS

Find out what life at Leeds Conservatoire is really like by chatting to our friendly team of current students online.

KEEPING YOU SAFE

We are taking precautions during this event to ensure the safety of visitors to our campus. We do ask that you follow the instruction of our staff and student ambassadors to ensure that we can manage the numbers of people in certain spaces throughout the day.

Visitors are welcome to wear a face covering when moving around our building, although this will not be enforced. Hand sanitising stations are available throughout the conservatoire and we encourage you to use these.
